

Give the gift of financial knowledge

Financing Your Education

Achieve Your Dreams

A seminar for parents & students

Dates & Time: February 23 and March 2, 2009, 7 – 9 pm
(Mondays - 2 hrs x 2 wks = 4 hrs total)

Location: Bainbridge High School – Room 308

Sponsored By: Bainbridge Island Community School
Bainbridge Island Chamber of Commerce

Cost: $70 parent + teen unit; $40 student only

This workshop for parents & students explores how to align your finances with your college, trade school, and career dreams.

Become money-savvy consumer who smartly maneuver today's complex financial aid systems; negotiates for free available $; is wise about saving, budgeting, and student loan debt.

Take charge of your financial health & future. Leverage practical ideas & tools. Learn values-based techniques for continuing creative & constructive conversations at home.

Participation qualifies students for a FFoM™ program with a community service option

Registration: <http://www.bainbridgechamber.com/Winter-09ComSchoolCat.pdf> or call (206) 842-0893

Dianne Juhl, M.A. and The Feminine Face of Money™ aspires to completely transform how women feel about and interact with money for both personal gain and the greater good. Dianne supports women (and the men & children who love them) to purposefully align their values with their checkbooks, and their finances with their deepest desires and future dream. Dianne's life journey, successful business career at Microsoft, educational and athletic achievements, community work, and service experiences afford her an insightful perspective about money and wealth, specially employed in this program designed to inform and empower young people and their parents and families. Visit Dianne and FFoM™ at www.femininefaceofmoney.com. Or call (206) 842-0893 for more info.

Guest Speaker: Trained & trustworthy financial planning professional will be in attendance to deliver basic information and assist with practical money mechanics questions. This professional will have real world experience in helping clients to chart their financial future and develop a coordinated strategy for attaining financial health and peace of mind about money matters like financing an education.